

SONAMUKHI COLLEGE

NSS UNIT- I, II & III

Organizes a National level online quiz competition

on

"HEALTH AND SAFETY AWARENESS"

From 18th July- 19th July, 2020

About the online quiz competition

Health and safety is an important issue for people in all working environments. Health and safety issues can affect everyone in the society, including students, employees and members of any domain. It is the duty of everyone to ensure that any risks around them are identified, controlled and monitored. NSS cell of Sonamukhi College thus introduces an effective online quiz competition for all to test their health and safety knowledge. This will not only help the participants to sharpen up their present knowledge status regarding the same but also major safety related issues to be addressed in future.

Participants can join the quiz competition anytime between 18th July (11 am) to 19th July (5 pm) 2020, by clicking on the link
